1. Overview

1.1. Expression of interests (EOI) are invited for the purchase and removal of the attached lots from council works compound located on Chapman road Kowanyama. The items are offered on an as is where is basis, and no guarantees as to their serviceability or completeness are given.

2. EOI Information

2.1. Prices

- Bids for EOI items must be in Australian currency and inclusive of all charges, including GST.
- Kowanyama Aboriginal Shire Council will not be responsible for or pay for expenses or losses, which may be incurred by any interested party in the preparation of his/her EOI.
- No EOI will be deemed to be accepted until advice in writing of acceptance has been given to the interested party by the Kowanyama Aboriginal Shire Council.

2.2. Conditions of items

- The vehicles are unregistered, unsafe to drive and are offered on an “as is where is” basis. The principal gives no warranty as to the quality, fitness of purpose, or the safe condition of the goods. Because the goods are sold “as is where is” the party submitting the EOI shall have no claim against the principal in respect of the quality, or safety of the goods whatsoever.
- Descriptions that are provided including known faults such as engine issues, body damage, or interior wear are for informational purposes only and do not constitute a complete assessment of the vehicle's condition.
- Participation in this auction constitutes acceptance of these terms

2.3. Payment

- The whole of the accepted EOI price must be paid and a receipt received and presented prior to the removal of the goods. Payment must be within 14 days of the letter of acceptance being issued to the successful interested party (or earlier if possible).

2.4. Electronic funds transfer

- For electronic transfers please contact the contact personnel.

Note: once a deposit has been made, Kowanyama Aboriginal Shire Council also requires verbal confirmation of the Electronic Funds Transfer to expedite receipting, by telephoning 07 4040 4500.

2.5. Company or personal cheques

- These cheques require a clearance period, and a receipt will not be issued before this expires. Please note that in some cases, clearance may take up to fourteen days.
- Please post to: Kowanyama Aboriginal Shire Council, PO Box 769, Bungalow QLD 4870.

2.6. Credit card

- Credit card will not be accepted.

2.7. Interest parties to examine documents

- Interested parties shall have deemed to have fully satisfied themselves as to the correctness and sufficiency of its' EOI.
- Interested parties shall be deemed to have carefully examined all matters relating to the contract and have undertaken an inspection where they wish to do so.
- If interested parties have any doubt as to the meaning of any portion of the specification or contract requirements they shall, before submitting their EOI, clarify any such doubt by making reasonable enquires.

2.8. Lodgement of EOI

a. EOI's must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Principal and should be submitted and clearly endorsed with the following KASC-2025-036 – Council Asset Disposal Silent Auction.

b. EOI's sent by prepaid post or recognised courier in time to be delivered, within the time stated, in the ordinary course of mail or delivery by recognized courier may be considered.

c. Please call the contact personnel if you wish to make an offer by telephone, facsimile, or electronic mail.

d. EOI's must be lodged by 4:00pm Tuesday 17 November 2026.

2.9. Withdrawal of offer

- An offer may be withdrawn at any time prior to the closing date by written notice to the principal.
- The principal may cancel the invitation to offer at any time, whether before or after the closing date of 4:00PM, Tuesday 17 November 2026 for offers.

2.10. Removal

- Damage to Council property and loss to any property of the successful EOI used for the purpose of removing the goods shall be borne by the successful interested party and no liability shall be devolved to the principal in respect of any loss or damage.
- The successful EOI is wholly responsible for the safe removal of items from the item location.
- Insurance of the truck/vehicles in transit and any damage incurred in transit or loading or unloading shall be the purchaser's responsibility.

2.11. Indemnity

The successful EOI shall indemnify the principal and their officers and/or agents against any action, claim or demand, brought because of damage to or loss of property, injury to or death of any person, and cost incurred in defending such actions, claims or demands suffered because of the successful EOI removing or attempting to remove the goods.

2.12. Commission and incentives

A EOI will not be considered if the person who made the EOI, or a representative of the person or company who made the EOI, gives or offers anything to any agent of the Kowanyama Aboriginal Shire Council as the principal, as an inducement or reward which could in any way tend to influence the person's actions in relation to the EOI. For this condition, "agent" includes the parent, spouse, child, or associate of the agent.

2.13. Canvassing of Councillors

The canvassing of councillor or staff of the council will automatically invalidate an EOI.

2.14. Default and termination of contract of sale

If the successful EOI:

a. fails to comply with any of the conditions of sale;
b. Abandons or refuses to proceed with the contract of sale; or
c. Makes default or is unable to pay for the goods;

Kowanyama Aboriginal Shire Council may terminate the contract of sale by notice to the successful EOI as of the date specified in the notice.
